Jeremy Joseph Davis, (Plaintiff), proceeding pro se, brings this action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983.<sup>1</sup> Plaintiff is an inmate at Turbeville Correctional Institution, a facility of the South Carolina Department of Corrections (SCDC), and files this action in forma pauperis under 28 U.S.C. § 1915. The complaint names an attorney appointed to represent Plaintiff and several SCDC employees as Defendants.<sup>2</sup> The complaint should be dismissed for failure to state a claim upon which relief may be granted against Defendant Elizabeth P. Wiygul. Service is recommended below for the remaining Defendants.

<sup>1</sup> Pursuant to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. §636(b)(1)(B), and Local Rule 73.02(B)(2)(d), D.S.C., the undersigned is authorized to review such complaints for relief and submit findings and recommendations to the District Court.

Pro Se and In Forma Pauperis Review

Under established local procedure in this judicial district, a careful review has been made of the pro se complaint pursuant to the procedural provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1915; 28 U.S.C. § 1915A; and the Prison Litigation Reform Act, Pub. L. No. 104-134, 110 Stat. 1321 (1996). This review has been conducted in light of the following precedents: Denton v. Hernandez, 504 U.S. 25 (1992); Neitzke v. Williams, 490 U.S. 319, 324-25 (1989); Haines v. Kerner, 404 U.S. 519 (1972); Nasim v. Warden, Md. House of Corr., 64 F.3d 951 (4th Cir. 1995); and Todd v. Baskerville, 712 F.2d 70 (4th Cir. 1983).

This complaint has been filed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915, which permits an indigent litigant to commence an action in federal court without prepaying the administrative costs of proceeding with the lawsuit. To protect against possible abuses of this privilege, the statute allows a district court to dismiss the case upon a finding that the action “fails to state a claim on which relief may be granted” or is “frivolous or malicious.” 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(i), (ii). A finding of frivolity can be made where the complaint “lacks an arguable basis either in law or in fact.” Denton v. Hernandez, 504 U.S. at 31. A claim based on a meritless legal theory may be dismissed sua sponte under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B). See Neitzke v. Williams, 490 U.S. 319 (1989); Allison v. Kyle, 66 F.3d 71 (5th Cir. 1995).

This Court is required to liberally construe pro se documents, Erickson v. Pardus, ___ U.S. ___, 127 S. Ct. 2197 (2007); Estelle v. Gamble, 429 U.S. 97 (1976), holding them to a less stringent standard than those drafted by attorneys, Hughes v. Rowe, 449 U.S. 9 (1980). Even under this less stringent standard, however, the pro se complaint is subject to summary dismissal as it pertains to Defendant Wiygul. The mandated liberal construction afforded to pro se pleadings means that if the court can reasonably read the pleadings to state a valid claim on which the plaintiff could prevail, it should do so. However, the requirement of liberal construction does not mean that the court can ignore a clear failure in the pleading to allege facts which set forth a claim currently cognizable in a federal district court. Weller v. Dep't of Soc. Servs., 901 F.2d 387 (4th Cir. 1990).

Background

Plaintiff claims that he has been denied one hundred and eighty-three (183) days of pretrial detention credit by the SCDC employee Defendants. Plaintiff states his "correctly calculated" release date should have been February 1, 2009. Plaintiff additionally names an attorney, Defendant Wiygul, who represented Plaintiff at a PCR hearing. Plaintiff claims this Defendant convinced Plaintiff to withdraw his PCR motion and told Plaintiff that she would represent him at an upcoming Administrative Law Court (ALC) hearing, regarding the pretrial detention credit issue. Defendant Wiygul apparently failed to represent Plaintiff at the ALC hearing. Plaintiff claims Defendant Wiygul's actions "went against written law" and constituted an "abuse of process." (Plaintiff's complaint, statement of claim cont'd, pages 5-6).

Discussion

This complaint is filed pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983, which "'is not itself a source of substantive rights,' but merely provides 'a method for vindicating federal rights elsewhere conferred.'" Albright v. Oliver, 510 U.S. 266, 271(1994) (quoting Baker v. McCollan, 443 U.S. 137, 144 n.3 (1979)). A civil action under § 1983 allows "a party who has been deprived of a federal right under the color of state law to seek relief." City of Monterey v. Del Monte Dunes at Monterey, Ltd., 526 U.S. 687, 707. To state a claim under § 1983, a plaintiff must allege two essential elements: (1) that a right secured by the Constitution or laws of the United States was violated, and (2) that the alleged violation was committed by a person acting under the color of state law. West v. Atkins, 487 U.S. 42, 48 (1988).

However, an attorney, whether retained, court-appointed, or a public defender, does not act under color of state law when performing traditional functions as counsel. See Polk County v. Dodson, 454 U.S. 312, 317-324 & nn. 8-16 (1981) (public defender); Hall v. Quillen, 631 F.2d 1154, 1155-1156 & nn. 2-3 (4th Cir. 1980) (court-appointed attorney); Deas v. Potts, 547 F.2d 800 (4th Cir. 1976) (private attorney). Plaintiff indicates Defendant Wiygul is an attorney who was assigned to represent him in a post-conviction relief matter. Defendant Wiygul also allegedly volunteered to represent Plaintiff at an Administrative Law Court hearing relating to SCDC's failure to credit Plaintiff's criminal sentence with nearly two hundred (200) days of pretrial detention time. As Plaintiff's allegations regarding Defendant Wiygul stem from her legal representation of Plaintiff, or lack thereof, this Defendant's actions were not performed "under color of state law." Thus, Defendant Wiygul is not amenable to suit under § 1983, and is entitled to summary dismissal from this action.

Recommendation

Accordingly, it is recommended that the District Court dismiss the complaint in the above-captioned case as to Defendant Wiygul without prejudice and without issuance and service of process for this Defendant. Process shall issue for service of the remaining Defendants. See Denton v. Hernandez, 504 U.S. at 31; Neitzke v. Williams, 490 U.S. at 324-25; Todd v. Baskerville 712 F.2d at 74. Plaintiff's attention is directed to the important notice on the next page.

Notice of Right to File Objections to Report and Recommendation

The parties are advised that they may file specific written objections to this Report and Recommendation with the District Court Judge. Objections must specifically identify the portions of the Report and Recommendation to which objections are made and the basis for such objections. In the absence of a timely filed objection, a district court need not conduct a de novo review, but instead must “only satisfy itself that there is no clear error on the face of the record in order to accept the recommendation.” Diamond v. Colonial Life & Acc. Ins. Co., 416 F.3d 310 (4th Cir. 2005).

Specific written objections must be filed within ten (10) days of the date of service of this Report and Recommendation. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(b). The time calculation of this ten-day period excludes weekends and holidays and provides for an additional three (3) days for filing by mail. Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(a) & (e). Filing by mail pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 5 may be accomplished by mailing objections to:

Larry W. Propes, Clerk
United States District Court
901 Richland Street
Columbia, South Carolina 29201

Failure to timely file specific written objections to this Report and Recommendation will result in waiver of the right to appeal from a judgment of the District Court based upon such Recommendation. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140 (1985); United States v. Schronce, 727 F.2d 91 (4th Cir. 1984); Wright v. Collins, 766 F.2d 841 (4th Cir. 1985).
